Dear Mr. Dulles:

Everyone with whom we came in contact at the C.I.A. was most cooperative with our Special Study Group. I should like, however, to commend especially  the very competent Secretarial Assistant you provided for us. Her work, in every respect was of the highest order. She not only carried out her secretarial duties in a superior manner, but with tact, courtesy and kindness did numerous personal services for the Group members. We were all most grateful to this fine girl and will long remember her splendid personality, high competence and boundless energy.

I cannot commend her too highly and hope that this recommendation may be made a part of her personnel file.

Very sincerely,

/s/ J. H. Doolittle
